* There is a coloured paper wrapper to each catalogue, with the exception of that of the first sale by Private Treaty, and many of the catalogues have the prices added in manuscript or in separate lists. The two Private Treaty sales and sales of 24 measure 8 1/2 inches and the remainder about 9 1/2 inches. Up to sale 200 each day is reckoned as a separate sale. Sales 151, 152 and 153 were held on March 3, 4 and 5, 1885. The wrapper of the catalogue of the following sale is numbered 153 and 154, and so onwards to sale 200 of April 19 and 20, 1904. The wrapper of the catalogue of the following sale bears "210" and "1" but the catalogue of the following sale of May 3 and 4, 1904, bears "201st sale," and the numbering is then continued with each catalogue counted as one sale, whether the sale lasted one, two or more days. Sales nos. 9 and 10 were held at Birmingham. The catalogue of the 241st sale has in error "240th sale" on page 1, but the numbering on the wrapper is correct.

* For sales 1-18 Auction Catalogues (Bull, Thomas). Each catalogue has a coloured paper wrapper with the exception of that for March 28, 1900, which has a white wrapper. This sale was held in aid of the War Relief Funds and the catalogue bears no number. Catalogue no. 49 has the number altered from forty-eight and this sale is identical with the twenty-third sale of R. F. Albrecht and Co. of New York; the stamps being catalogued by the latter firm and the sale held in London by Ventom, Bull and Cooper. Nearly every sale has the prices added in manuscript or in a separate printed list. The printed price list of the fifty-sixth sale has in error "67h".

CONGREVE (SIR WILLIAM) Bart. An Analysis of the true principles of security against forgery; exemplified by an enquiry into the sufficiency of the American plan for a new bank note; with imitations of four of the most difficult specimens of those notes, made by ordinary means; by which it is proved that there is no adequate security to be achieved in one colour, in the present state of the arts, and that the true basis of security is in the due application of relief engraving and printing in two or more colours. * * * A song composed in honour of Mr. Samuel Walliker, a former postmaster of Hull, on the establishment of a money order office, savings bank, etc., in Wellington Street, Humber Docks, Hull. Each page of the text has a crude lithographed drawing at the top. The date of publication is not given, but as a reference is made to the Government telegraph service, the pamphlet probably appeared about the year 1871.

* * The author's full name does not appear, but the "Introduction" is signed "Alfred P." Although bearing the date "1862," a note by the publisher of the second edition affixed to the paper wrapper states that the first edition appeared on December 21, 1861. This was, therefore, the first catalogue of stamps ever published. See also remarks by J. B. Moens in the second edition of his "Manuel du Collectionneur de timbres-poste," Bruxelles, 1862. Two varieties of the paper wrapper are found: one with "Prix: 2 Fr. 00 cent," the other with "Prix: 1 Fr. 25 cent." Facsimiles of the coloured paper wrapper with "Prix: 2 Fr. 00 cent." and of the first eight pages of the catalogue are given in P. Mahe's "Les marchands de timbres-poste d'autrefois et leurs catalogues," Amiens, 1908. The copy in the library wants pages 25-28, and the wrapper with "Prix 2 Fr. 00 cent." is also wanting. There is a perfect copy of this edition in the British Museum library, catalogued under P. (Alfred) and with the press mark 8245.a. 68. (8).
